NOTICE

It has been decided that the requirement of "No Objection Certificate" with respect to Shipping Bills from the Port offices of Central Drugs Standard Control Organisation for the export consignments to USA, Canada, Japan, Australia and European Union shall not be insisted with effect from 1st January, 2016. This is being done in pursuit to bring ease in the drug regulatory practices in India related to export of drugs, medical devices and cosmetics.

All the stakeholders are however required to comply with the regulatory requirements of the importing countries as per their specific need.
